Dear Mr. Trivanovich:

Friday afternoon, last period of the day, hot humid weather, an assembly program, 1050 antsy high school students, and I'm nervous! A gentleman named Cary Trivanovich is introduced to the student body and I'm more nervous!!

The next 45 minutes were a blur. Never in 30 years of education have I seen students and faculty so mesmerized by and immersed in a program. The entertainment factor was great but, indeed, so was your message.

Cary, you have an exceptional talent and your commitment to young people is just as obvious. Thank you for sharing with us and best wishes for success in future endeavors.

Sincerely,
